

---

The National Tourism Policy Committee agreed that the period from January to December 2015 will be designated the "Thainess tourism year. The objective is to launch a new campaign, with an emphasis on the Thai way of life, Thai culture, and Thai experiences, and to encourage greater cooperation in tourism development and promotion.