

Members of the Diplomatic Corps Granted an Audience with King Rama X (6/5/2019)

Representatives of the diplomatic and consular corps accredited to Thailand, and a representative of international organizations in Thailand, were granted an audience with His Majesty the King at Chakri Maha Prasat Throne Hall in the Grand Palace at about 17.30 hr on 6 May 2019.

The Ambassador of the Republic of Singapore to Thailand, Mrs. Chua Siew San, as dean of the diplomatic corps, gave a speech of tribute on behalf of representatives of the diplomatic corps to offer felicitations to His Majesty on the occasion of his coronation.

Then His Majesty delivered a royal address saying that he and the Queen were very impressed with the felicitations full of best wishes and good will, expressed by the dean on behalf of members of the diplomatic and consular corps.

His Majesty thanked them for their good will to the Thai people and their intention to strengthen relations with Thailand. In this regard, His Majesty assured them that they would be provided with full support from the Government and the people of Thailand. His Majesty, himself, would also make an effort to further promote the existing relationships between Thailand and respective countries.

On this occasion, His Majesty wished them and their families happiness and progress and wished their countries and the people in their nations prosperity forever.

Later, there was a reception for the diplomatic corps granted by His Majesty the King at Boromarajasathitmaholarn Hall in the Grand Palace.
